FOREWORD

When flowers of spring have faded,
When summer suns have set,
And happiness is but a dream,
And age a vain regret,

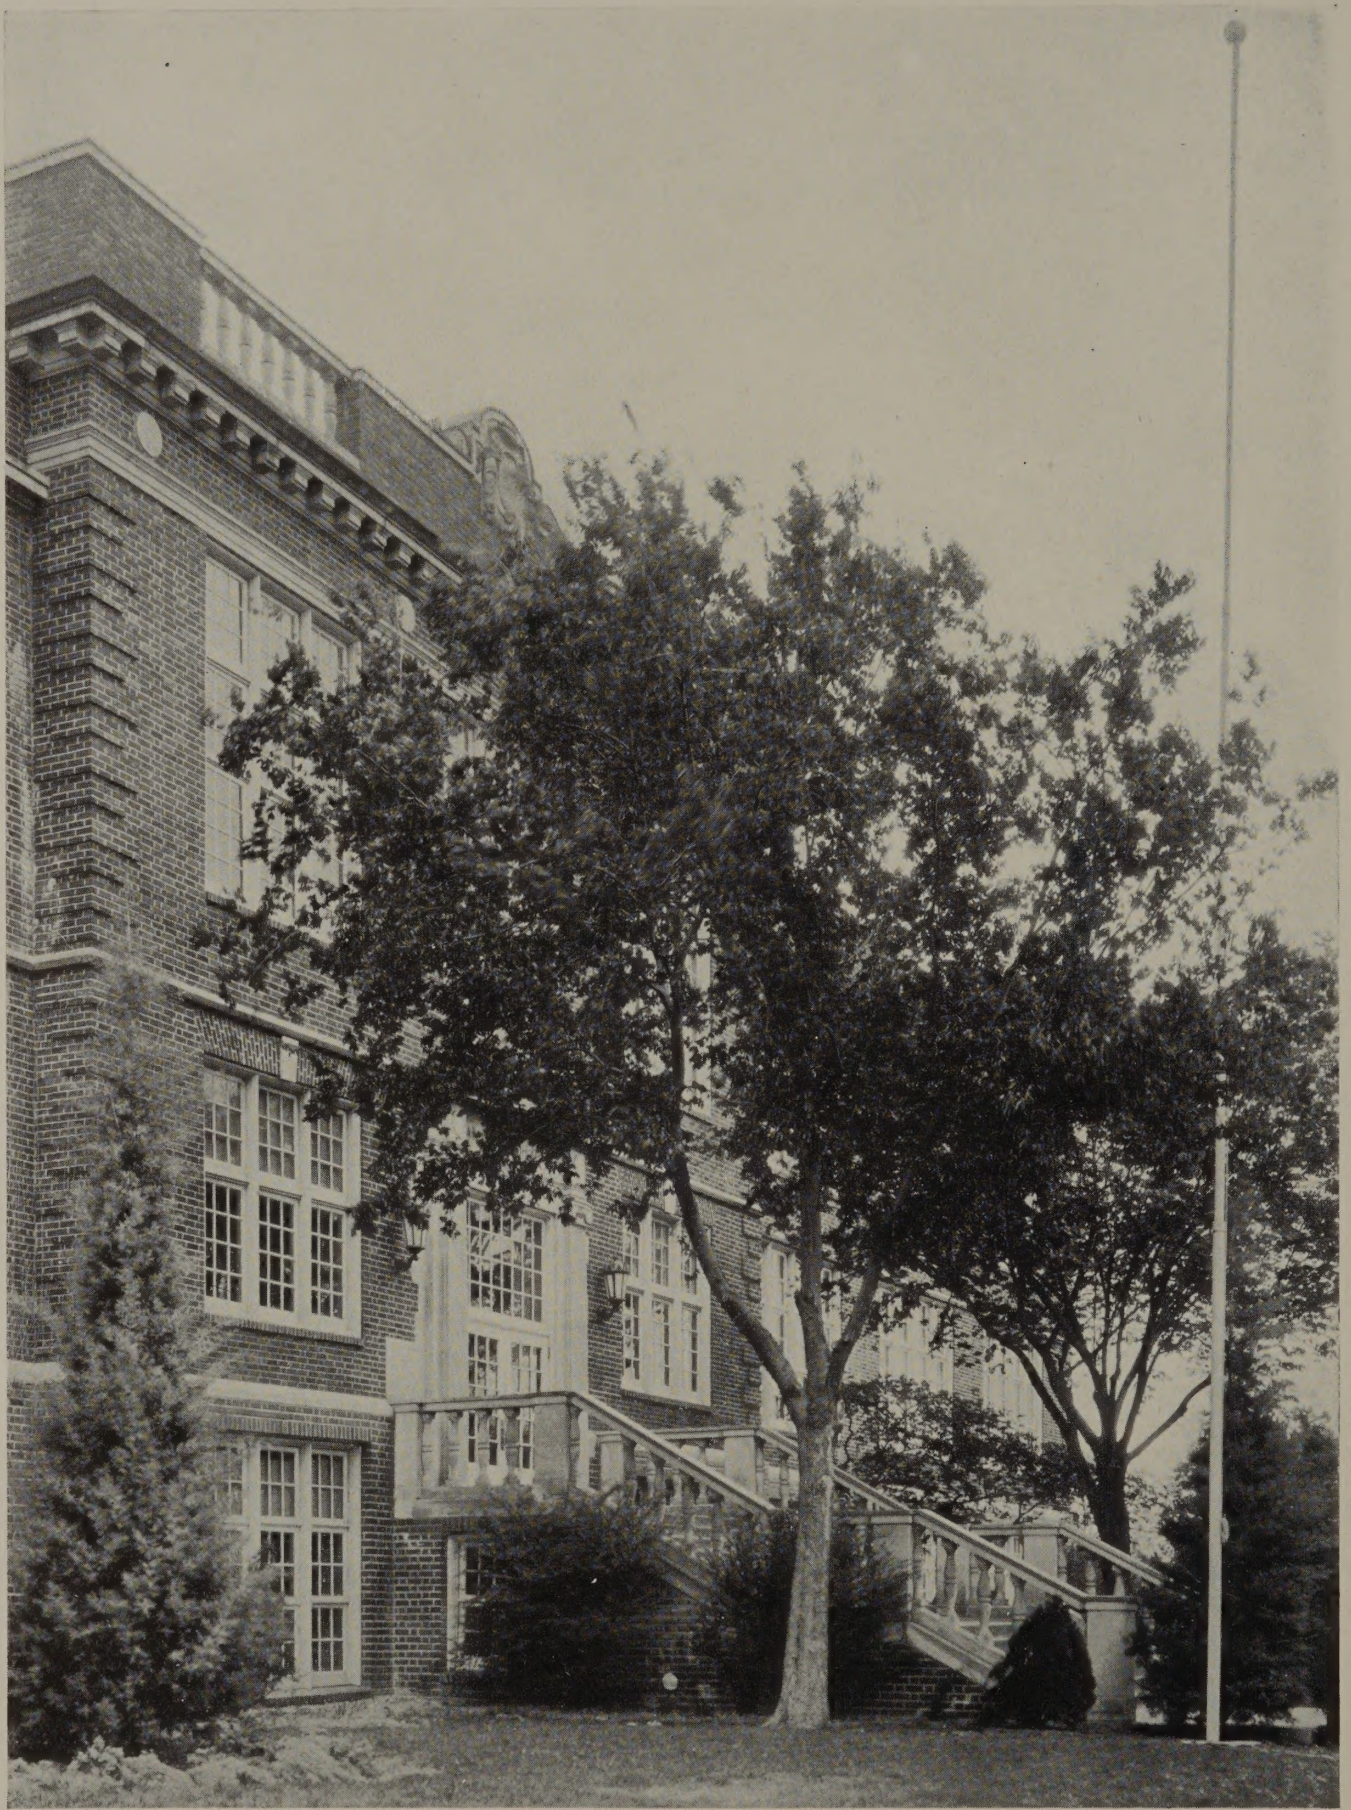

Hie you away to the groves of youth,
Forget old-age as it grieves;
Renew the joys of yesterday
With these gay tinged Oak leaves.

To one unfailing in service, wise in leadership, sympathetic in counseling—Frances Alberta
Cooper—this issue of the OAK is dedicated, affectionately and appreciatively, by the 1933 Staff.

To Oak Cliff High School

When first I viewed your rising walls
Your spirit brave and strong,
I saw the winding Shanghai streets
And heard the K'ang Hsi song:

"In the Ta Yi potter's shop
They cast with infinite care
Each specimen they bring within
Both plentiful and rare
In the gleaming Ta Yi kilns.

The roughened one is smoothed,
The dull is made to shine,
The plain is soon transformed
With marvelous design,
In the gleaming Ta Yi kilns.

The Ta Yi men work skilfully
To fashion art of clay;
The merchant ship sails in at night
To carry it away
From the gleaming Ta Yi kilns."

You are the Ta Yi workshop.
With loving care you mould
Each mind, and heart, and spirit
Of both the meek and bold.

And time sails into port
To bear each one away,
That he may serve mankind
In his individual way.

THE THATCHED EAVES

*Beneath the eaves the weeds are swept away with care,
The flowering shrubs I reared have formed a pathway fair.
The stream that feeds the fields through endless verdure wends,
Each hill beyond to me its wealth of emerald sends.*

For many years it has been my pleasure to write a word to the graduating class. Perhaps this will be our last Annual, but you have made this one a fitting monument to the Oak Cliff High School. Its pages show the wonderful energy and coöperation of the Senior Class. As you look over the pages of this book may it ever be a reminder of Oak Cliff High and its spirit of loyalty.

OAK

To W. H. Adamson

With dauntless true devotion
Prometheus served mankind.
So you in noble quest,
Strive ceaselessly to find
A torch to warm each heart,
A spark to light each mind.

You seek no fame renowned,
You ask no honor great;
But toil with zealous love;
In hope and prayer, you wait;
And daily work to build
Life's curving highway straight.

To you, O friend of man,
To causes you admire,
We dedicate our efforts
And fix our aims the higher,
To keep forever burning
That famed Promethean fire.

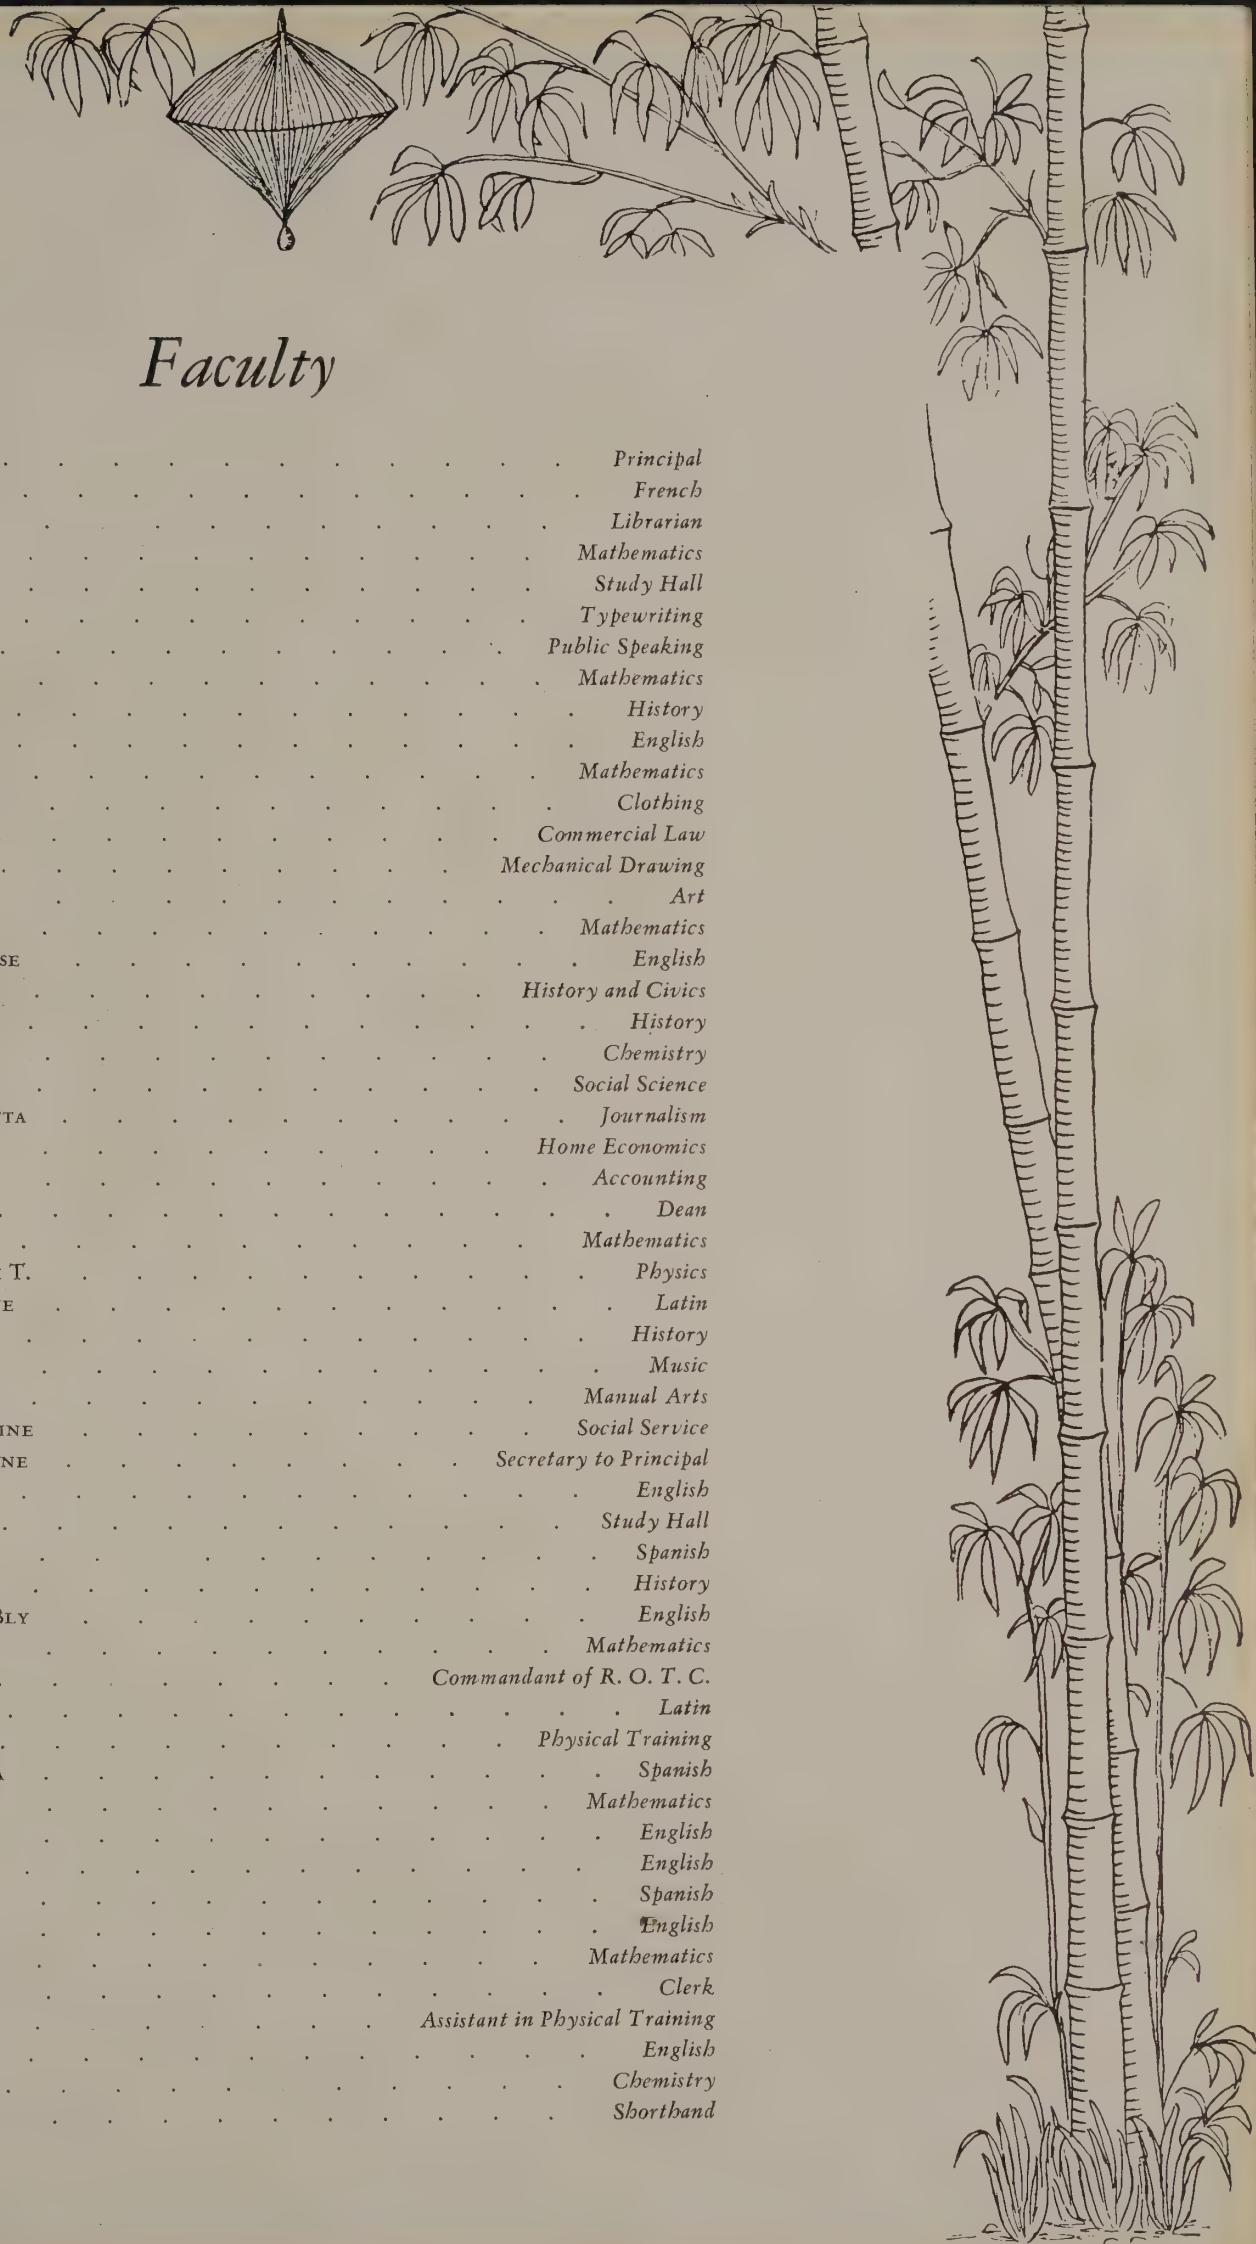

Faculty

With our small space and limited vocabulary, we find it a hard task to express our gratitude to the faculty. For the splendid examples of truth and upright character you have set for us, we are deeply appreciative. For the noble efforts you have made for us, and for the true spirit of friendship you have instilled into us during the four years that we have been fortunate enough to be under your guidance, we are eternally thankful to you—our faculty—our friends.

*"My little lake was like a mirror spread,
Across its surface lights and shadows sped.
"Whence came this limpidness of thine," I said.
It answered: "From a living fountain-head."*

Parent-Teacher Association

1932-33

MOTTO:

"Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap if we faint not."

During the year now closing—1932, 1933—the officers of the Oak Cliff High Parent-Teacher Association have hidden in their hearts the words of the Association's motto. The entire organization under the able and inspiring leadership of its president—who has endeared herself to all the members by her tireless devotion to the work—has labored with zeal to accomplish a worthy task. Each phase of the work has been pursued with painstaking care. Nothing is too good for our Oak Cliff High students; no work too burdensome if it serve them.

*With a heart full of love for them, and
A soul full of prayer for them,
We enfold them in a continuing interest
In their welfare, and constantly
"Press toward the mark."*

The Dads' Club

Vice-President	J. A. GARVIN
Second Vice-President	S. A. LACY
Third Vice-President	W. T. ULM
Fourth Vice-President	J. A. HOSTY
Fifth Vice-President	J. O. BEAUDUY
Secretary	J. G. JONES
Treasurer	A. ENLANDER

Service to the boys and girls of Oak Cliff has been the only purpose and sole reason for the Dad's Club activities. The club has been organized for several years and hopes it has yet ahead a long period of usefulness.

Last year the Dad's Club contributed financial aid to welfare, education, R. O. T. C. and sports to a large extent. It also gave assistance and moral support to the school in other ways.

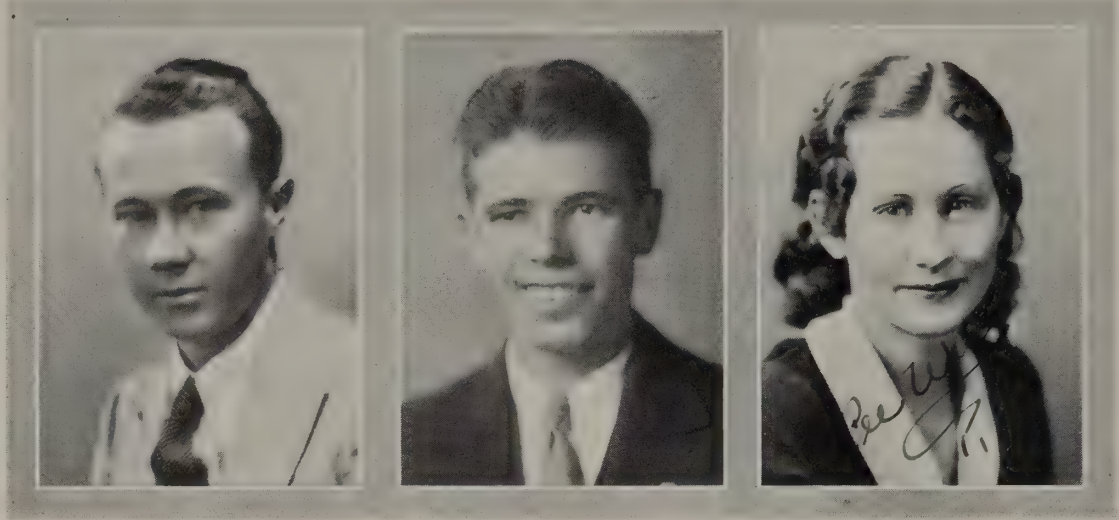

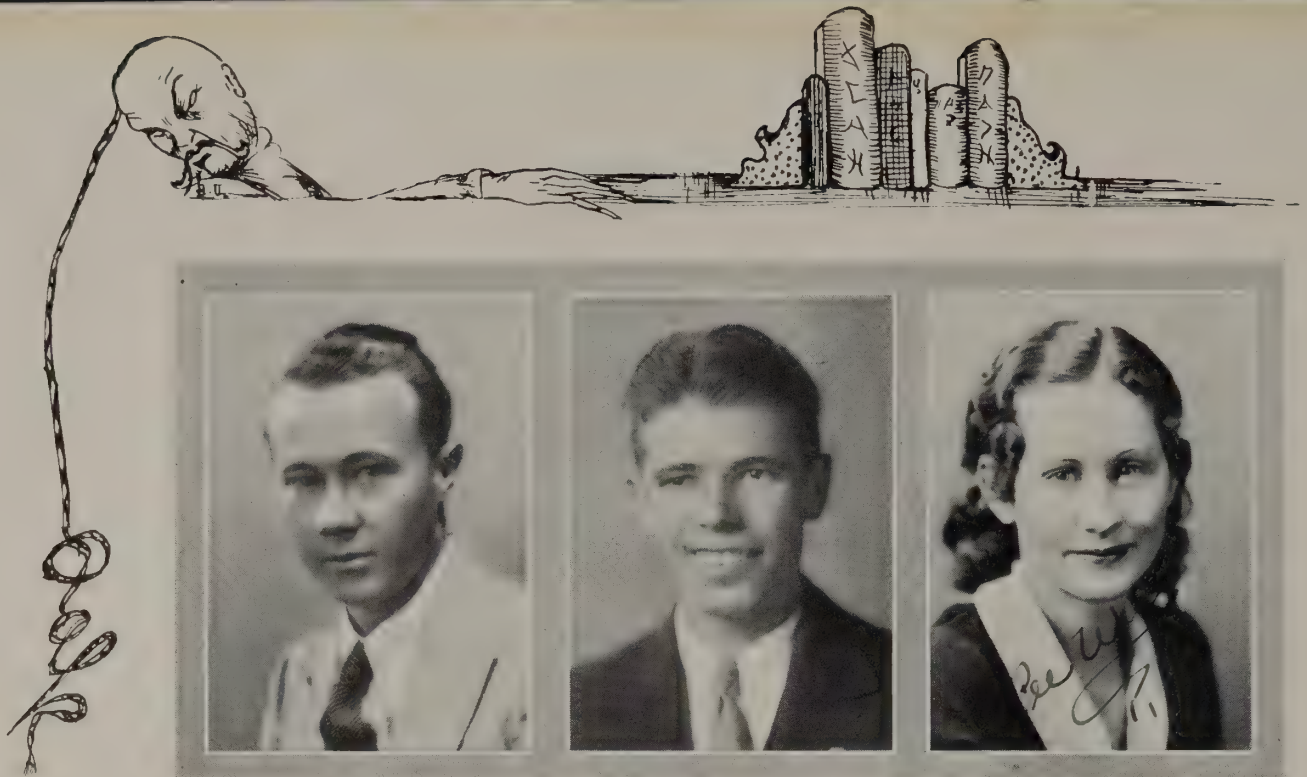

During 1932-33 it has taken part in the work of the Central Dad's Club for all city schools, and has coöperated with the P.-T. A. in a program of welfare, scholarship, promotion, improvement of social and moral condition in the vicinity of the school, and in furnishing wholesome entertainment.

In the future it plans to concentrate upon welfare work among the pupils and take part in such other activities as shall maintain the fine spirit of loyalty and achievement characteristic of Oak Cliff High School.

4B Class

The present 4B class, though rather small, is one of the most praiseworthy classes in school. Its officers are very enterprising, and, under the direction of Mrs. Minnie Bramlette, sponsor, plan to accomplish many feats of honor during the remainder of this year.

The 4B class has its share of the "notables" of Oak Cliff, having on the class roll several students belonging to the National Honor Society, and a large representation in the Pan American League. Tim Welch was voted Underclass Favorite in the Popularity Contest and was also Captain of the Rifle Team. He, with Elizabeth Tipps, also a 4B, represented Oak Cliff in the Declamation Contest.

Farewell to Seniors

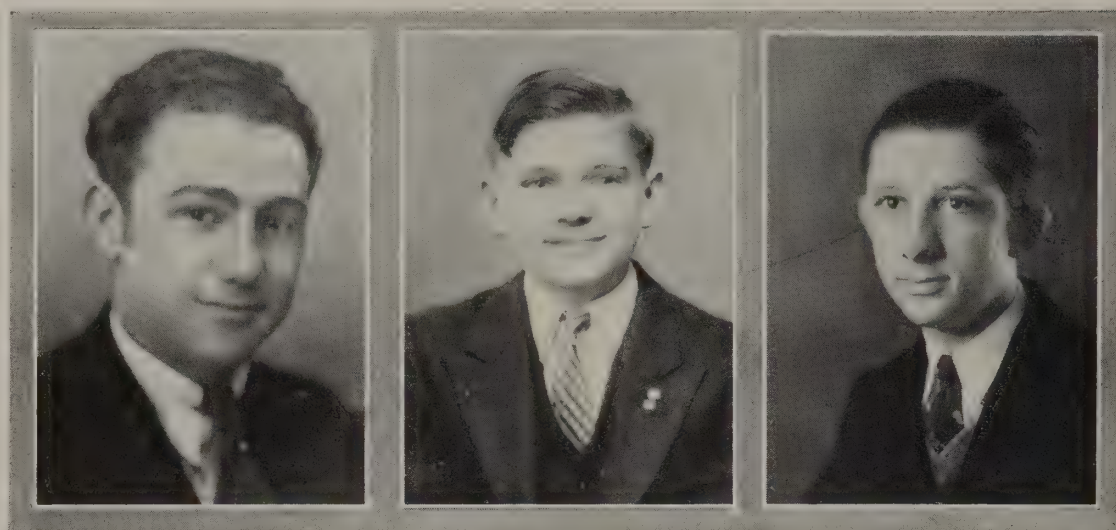

Now that the time has arrived to part with our classmates, perhaps forever, we find the parting much harder than we had expected. We have laughed together, cried together, made good grades together, or perchance failed together, for four years. We have had our ups and downs, but we have mastered them all by just being together. Though some may take the road to the right and some the road to the left, may we all take that road which will prove to be the right road for each of us. It may be we shall meet again somewhere on the cross roads of life and recall the happy hours of our high school days. Although in time we may forget each other, may we never forget the high ideals and aspirations of our high school days.

*"The closing eve of spring will soon depart,
With pain its parting fills my broken heart.
O friend, we'll spend the night awake and sing,
For till the day-bell sounds, it yet is spring!"*

3A Class

The 3A class, under the sponsorship of Miss Margaret Harris, is one of the largest classes of the school. It has entered into its last term of the junior year with zest and enthusiasm, and has planned to keep the names of the members of its class high on the rolls of student honors.

This class is especially well represented in intellectual activities, having a large number in the National Honor Society and in the Scholarship Club. That its members are among the most popular in Oak Cliff is shown by the fact that it is the proud possessor of three of the underclass favorites—Janie Large, Best All-Around Underclass Girl; Imogene Fitzgerald, Underclass Beauty; and Angelo Piranio, Best All-Around Underclass Boy.

*"My leisure in a grove the classics lull,
Or by a stream I watched an idle gull.
The state of Ch'u has men of talents rare,
'Mong them, whose closest friendship do you share?"*

3B Class

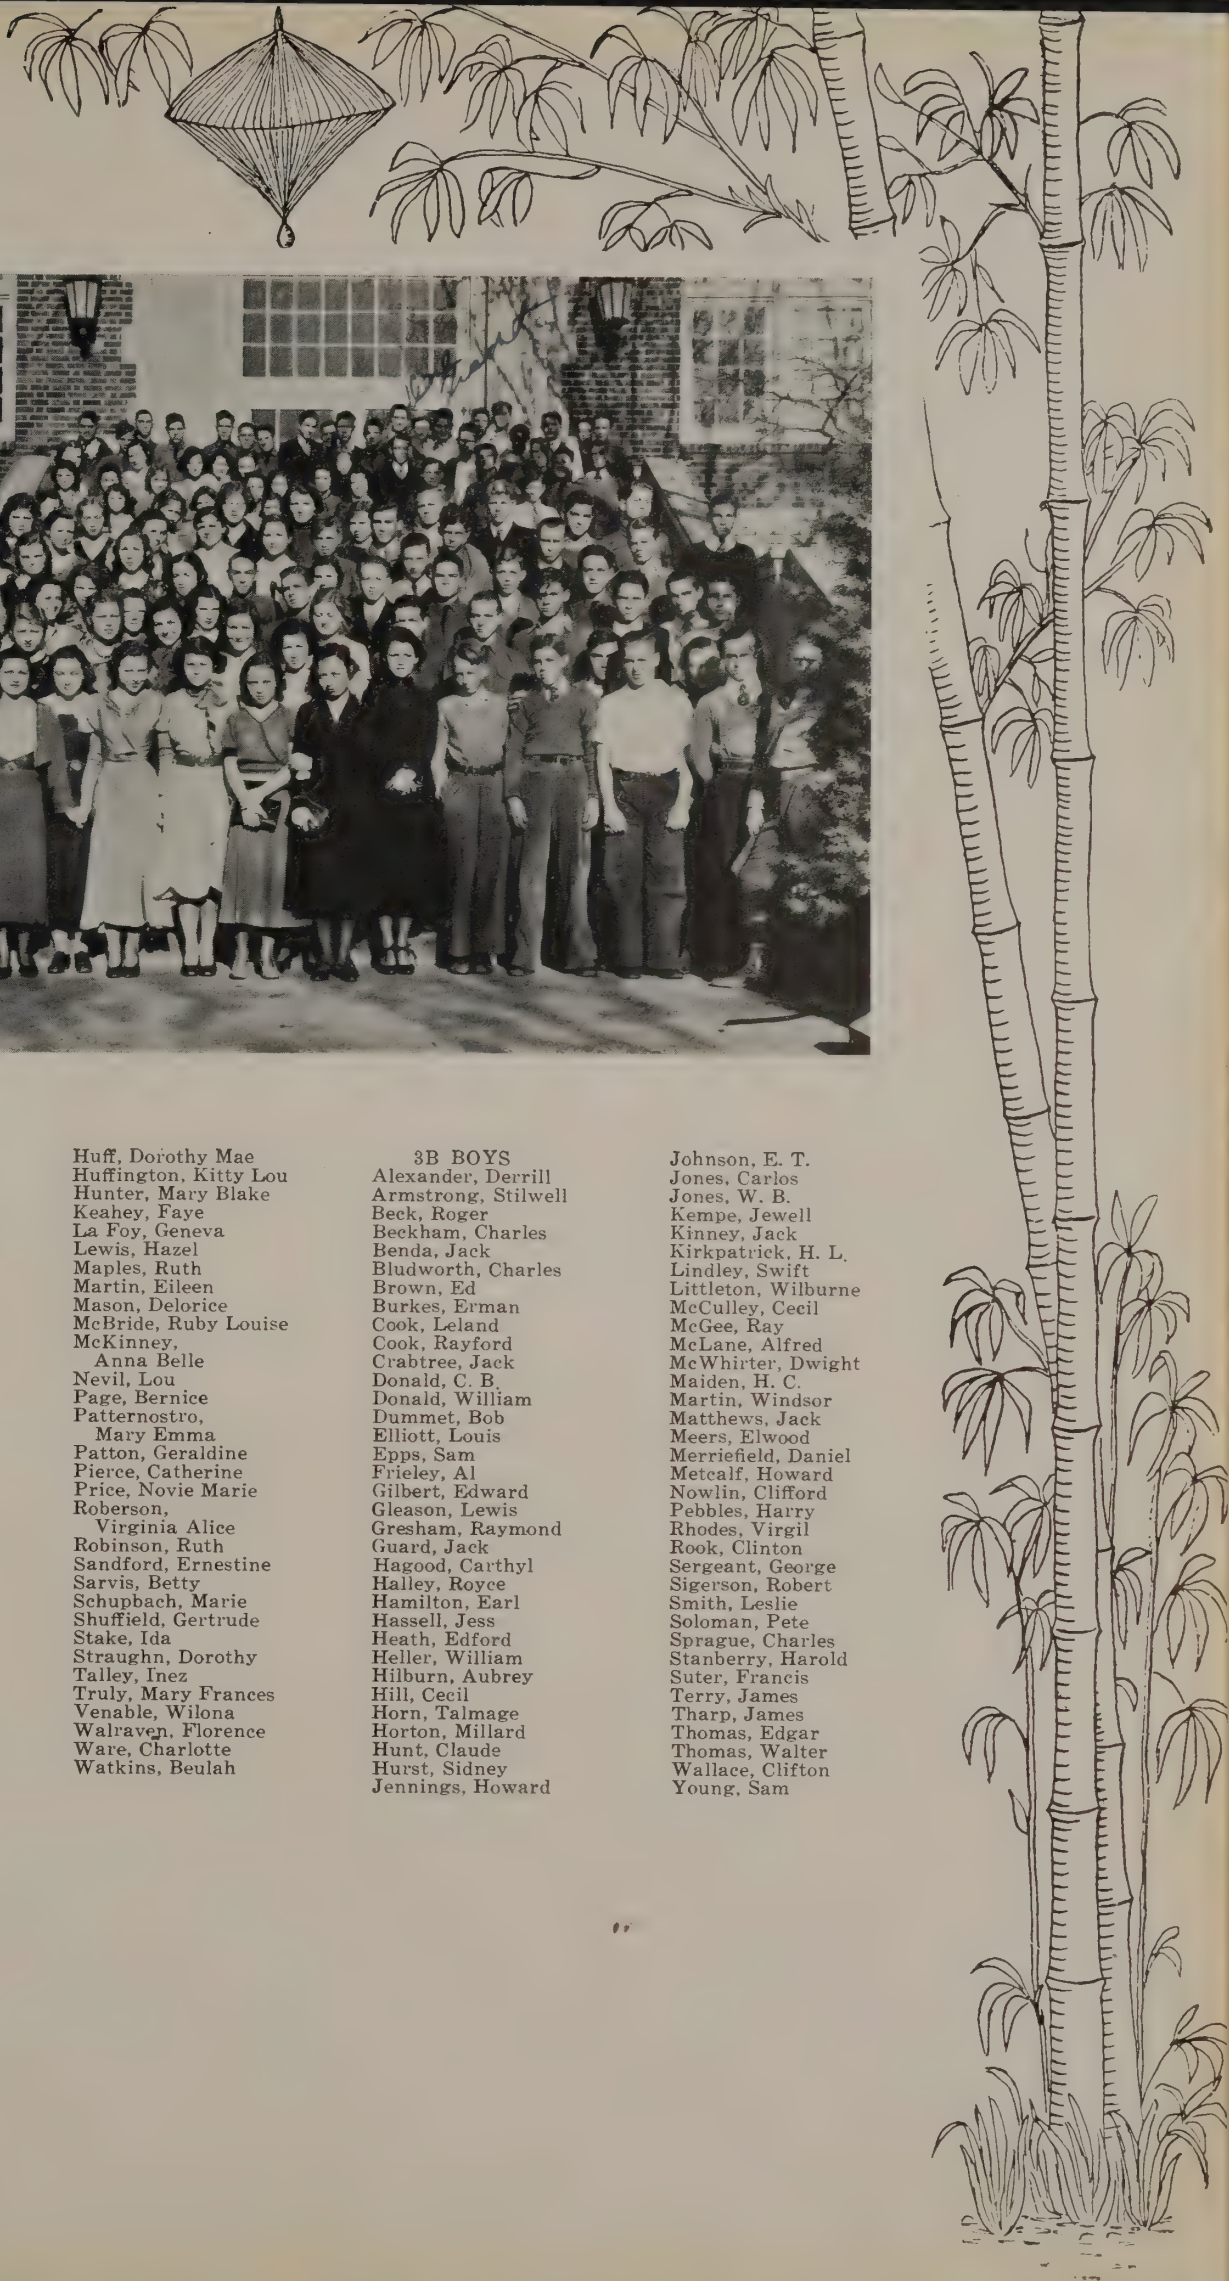

With a desire to live up to the traditions of "Jolly Juniors," the 3B class, under the guidance of Miss Virginia Rootes, entered into its third year of high school life. They have become one of the peppiest classes in Oak Cliff because they have happy memories to look back on, and happier times to look forward to.

Besides this fun-loving spirit, the 3B's also have a spirit of seriousness, as is shown by the number in the Scholarship Club each six weeks.

*"My boat I moored beneath the ancient forest shade,
With staff in hand I crossed a bridge and eastward strayed.
I felt the shower that cheered the flowering apricot,
The breeze that rocked the swaying willows chilled me not."*

2A Class

Although the 2A class is rather large, under the direction of efficient officers and its sponsor, Miss Mary Louise Clyette, it is aspiring to be one of Oak Cliff's leading classes.

Apparently its members are intellectually inclined, as the long list of 2A names that appear on the Honor Roll each six weeks indicate studious endeavors on the part of students in this class. Frank Goerner, president of the Latin Club, and Dorothy Chapman, a member of the spelling team, are reasons why this class should succeed in upholding Oak Cliff's age-old traditions.

*"Time presses mortals on with quickened speed,
But here alluring sights in turn succeed,
As hospitality would urge me stay,
I linger, since I seldom pass this way."*

2B Class

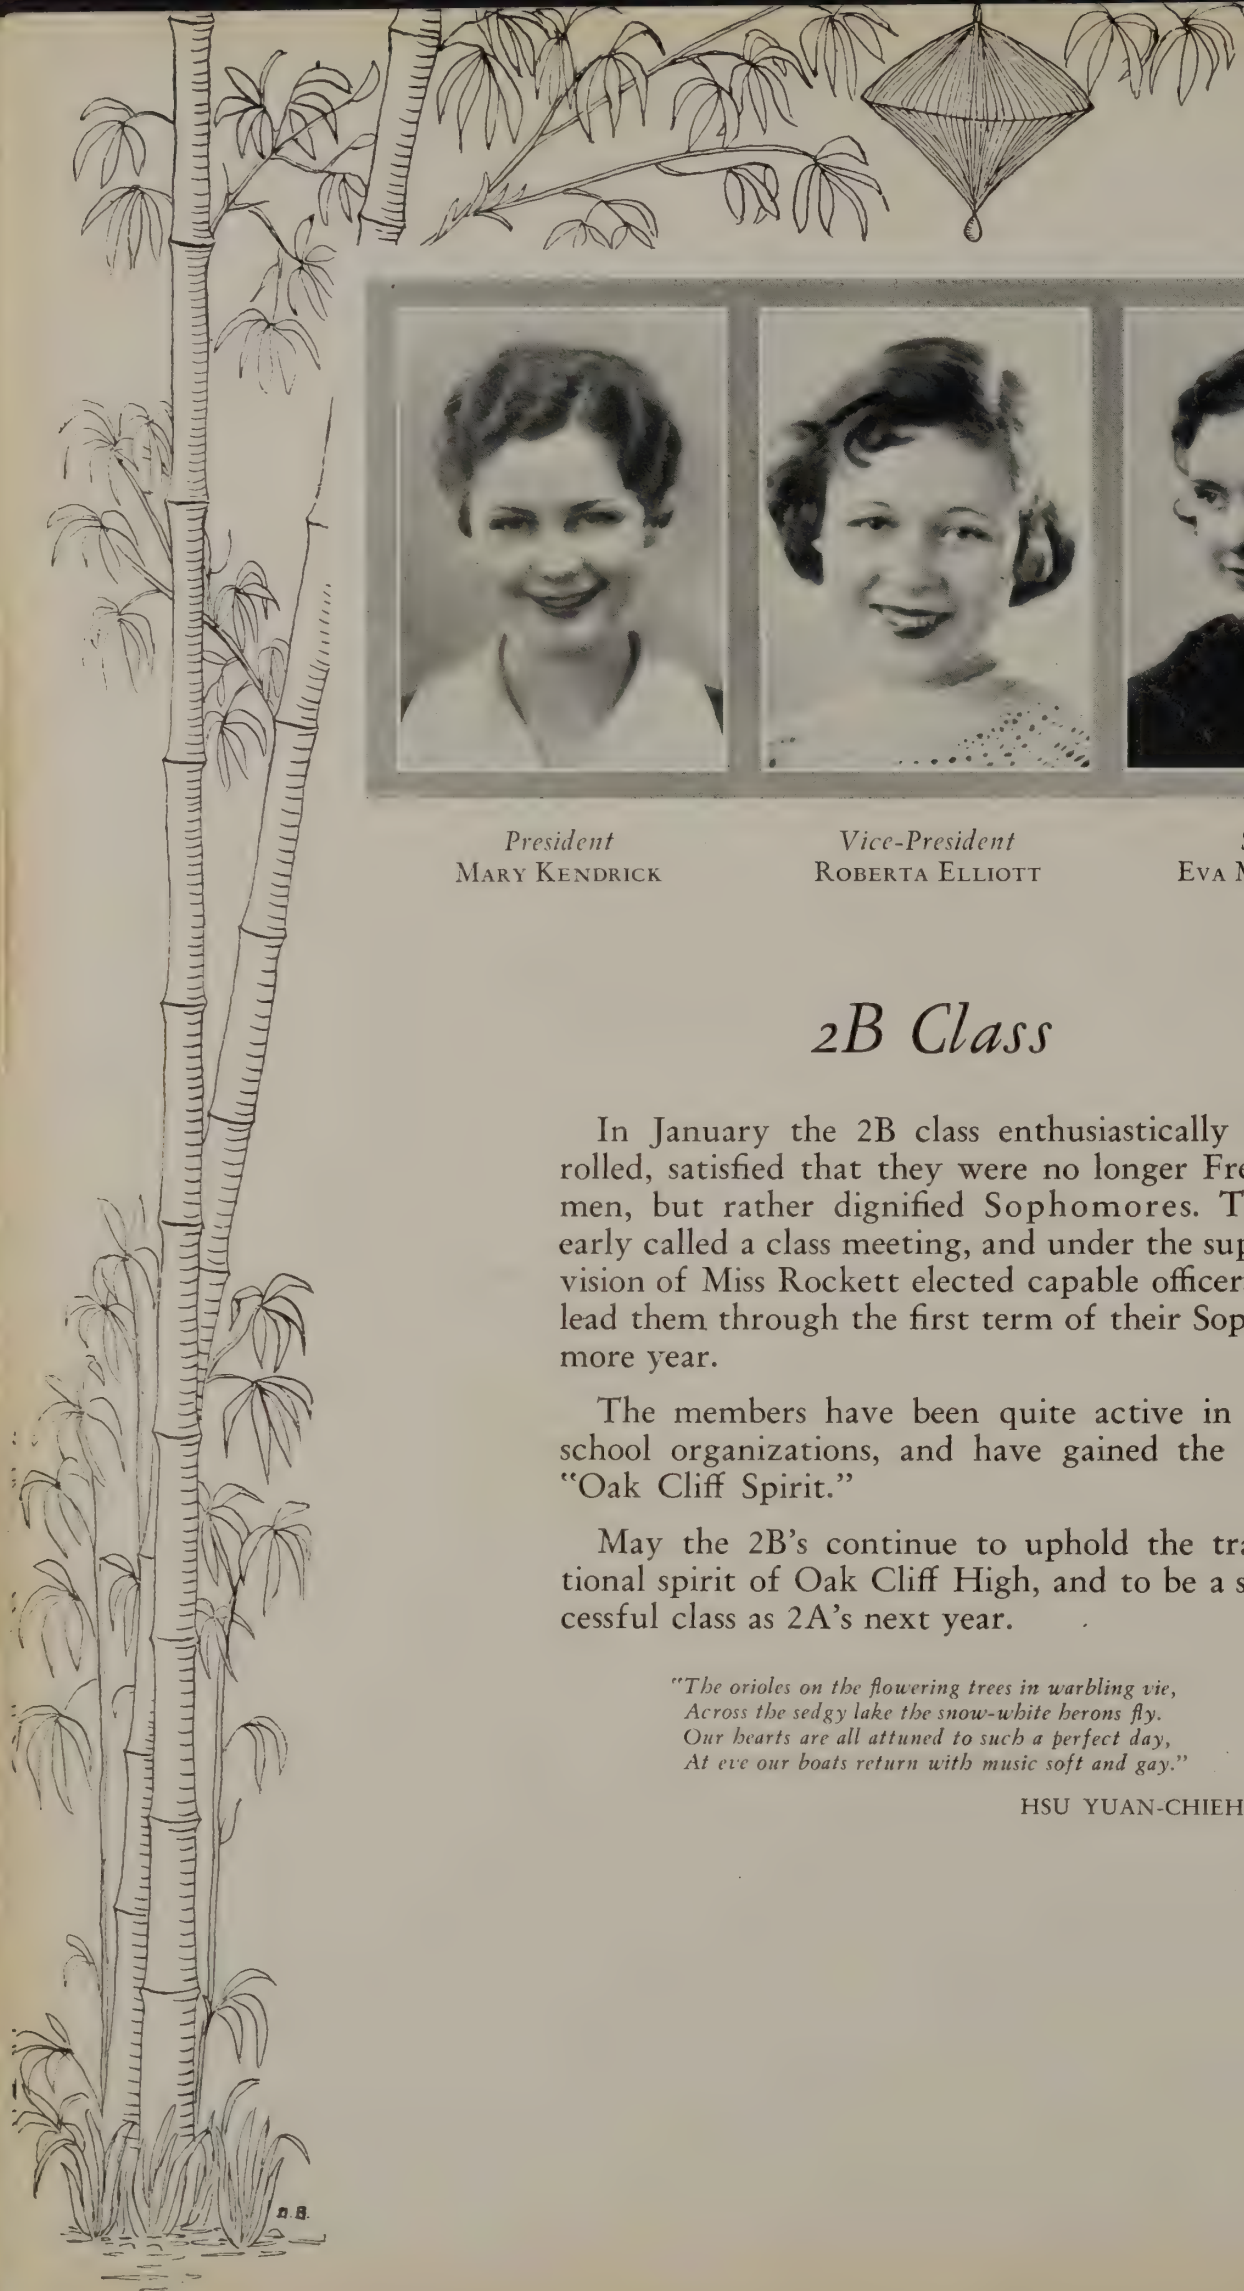

In January the 2B class enthusiastically enrolled, satisfied that they were no longer Freshmen, but rather dignified Sophomores. They early called a class meeting, and under the supervision of Miss Rockett elected capable officers to lead them through the first term of their Sophomore year.

The members have been quite active in the school organizations, and have gained the real "Oak Cliff Spirit."

May the 2B's continue to uphold the traditional spirit of Oak Cliff High, and to be a successful class as 2A's next year.

*"The orioles on the flowering trees in warbling vie,
Across the sedgy lake the snow-white herons fly.
Our hearts are all attuned to such a perfect day,
At eve our boats return with music soft and gay."*

1A Class

January found the members of the 1A class, turbulent in spirit, pouring into Oak Cliff High, proud of the fact that they could no longer be referred to as "fresh Fish." Miss Abigail Crane was chosen to sponsor the group, and gladly agreed to aid it in every way possible.

Vincent Baker won the P.-T. A. prize for the highest underclass scholastic average. His average was 96-9/16.

Just before the class became "1A's," it gave an assembly to prove that if Freshmen were old enough to abandon kiddie kars they were old enough to entertain the student body.

*"Now through the willows back and forth the orioles ply,
And with a click and cluck, like noisy shuttles, fly.
In Lo-yang April flowers make a field of gold,
That needs much weaving such a gorgeous work t'unfold."*

1B Class

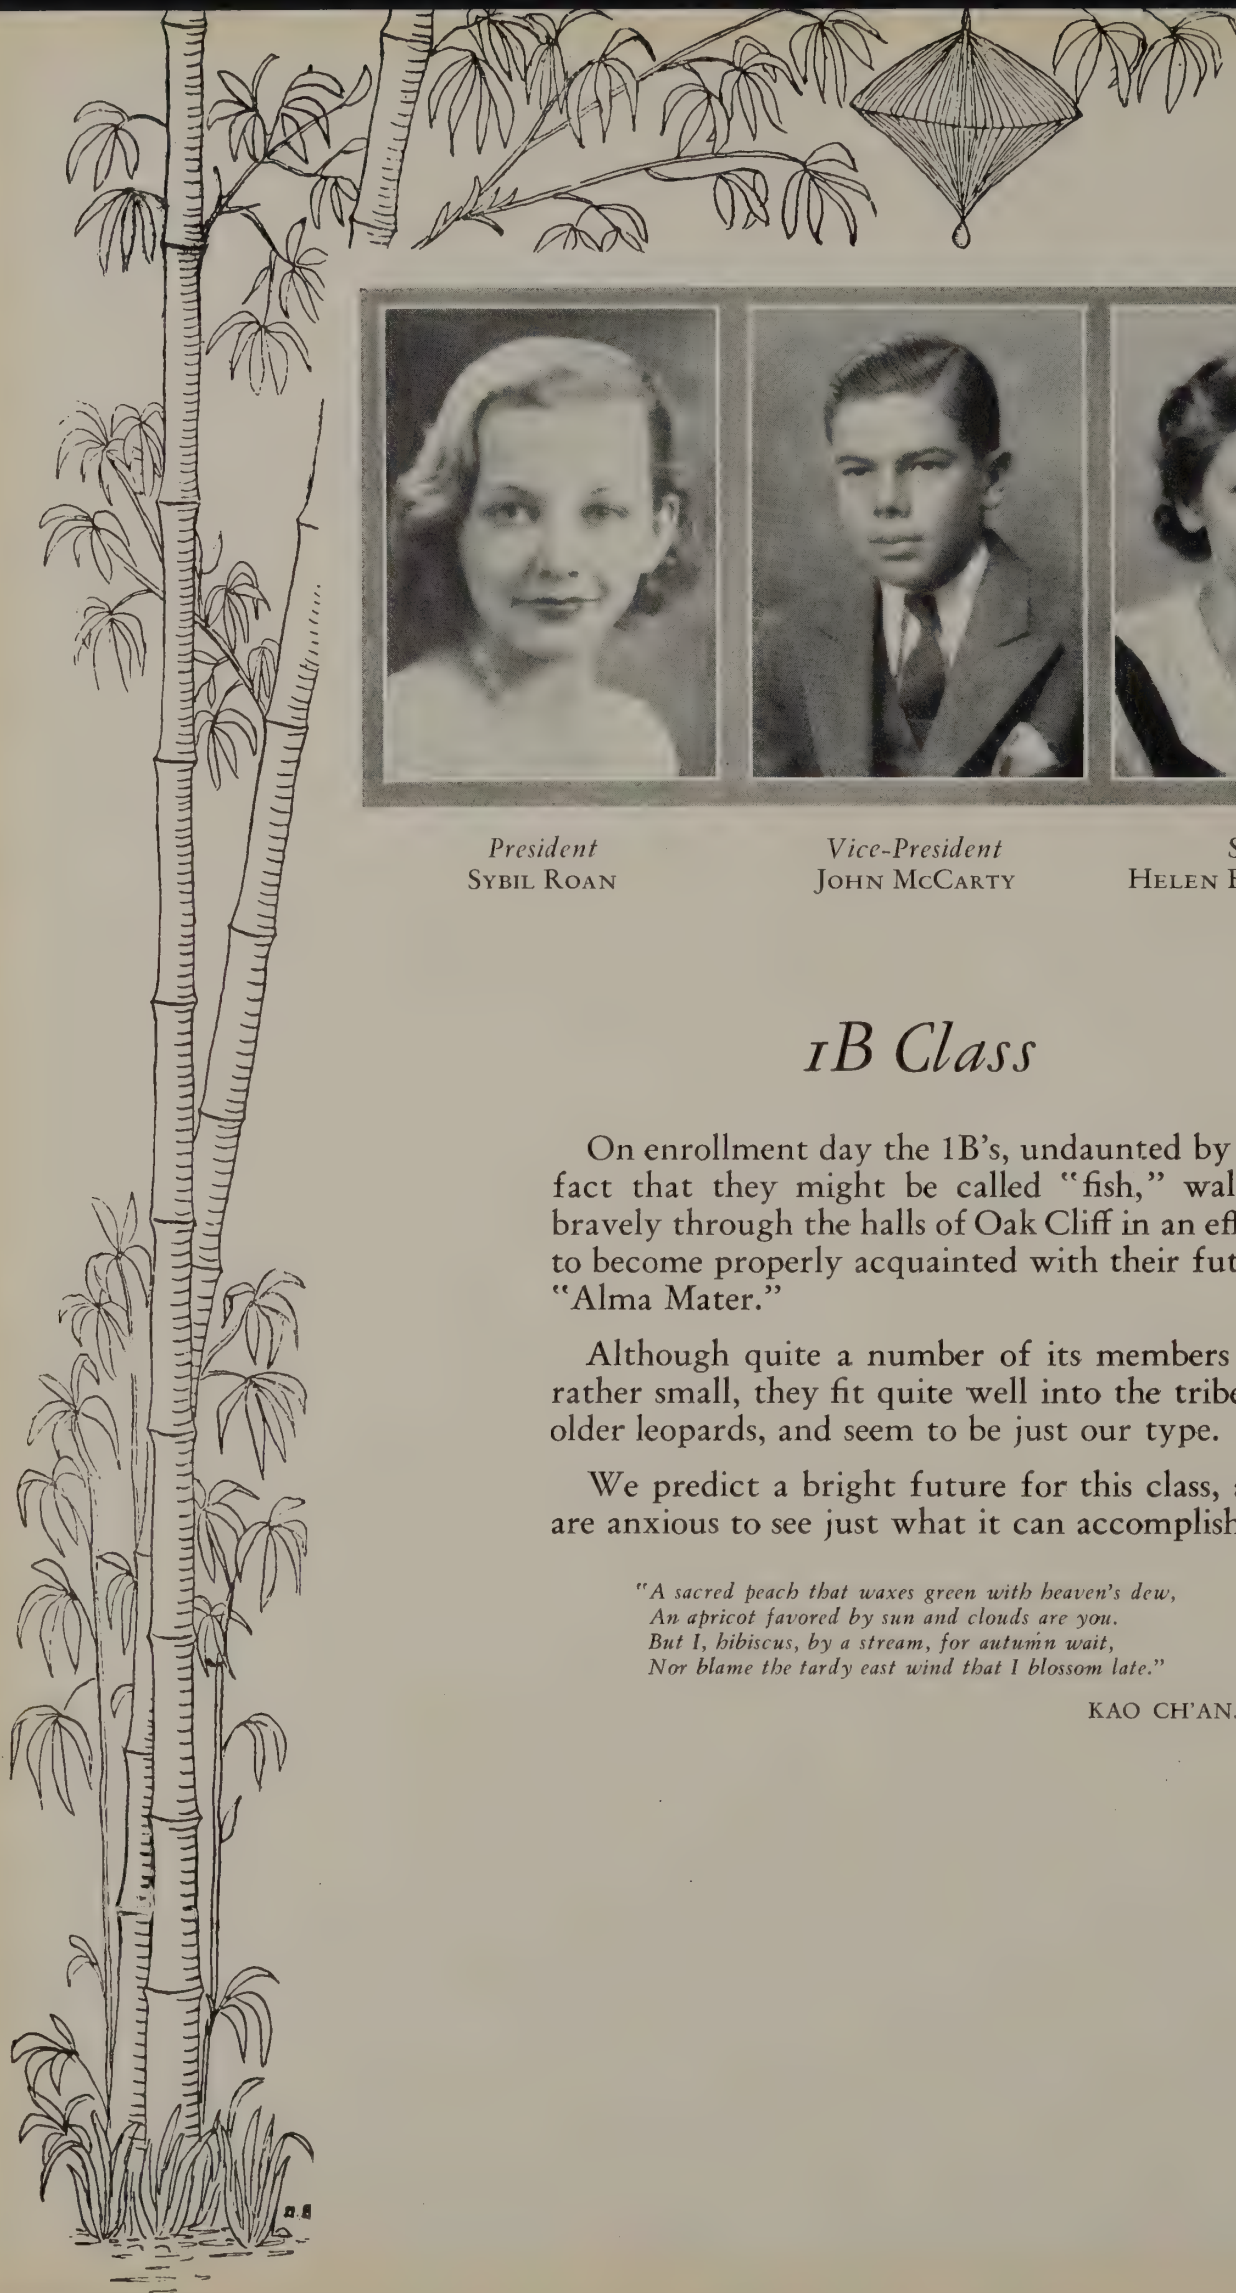

On enrollment day the 1B's, undaunted by the fact that they might be called "fish," walked bravely through the halls of Oak Cliff in an effort to become properly acquainted with their future "Alma Mater."

Although quite a number of its members are rather small, they fit quite well into the tribe of older leopards, and seem to be just our type.

We predict a bright future for this class, and are anxious to see just what it can accomplish.

Who's Who

Dorothy Chapman, who had the only perfect paper in the Junior division last year, is credited this year with having handed in one of the two perfect spelling papers of the city in the Interscholastic Contest. She is a 2A.

Elizabeth Tipps, a member of the 4B class, proved the heroine of the day when she scored first in the Interscholastic League Girls' Declamation Contest.

Wanda Neal, 2A, was the winner of the first place in the Girls' Extemporaneous Speaking Contest.

Edwin Redding received second prize of the P.-T. A. award for having made the second highest average of the underclassmen.

Ruth Waldrop, winner of the senior prize in the Better Homes Contest.

Alice Gardner won the junior prize in the Better Homes Contest.

Billy Young won the sophomore prize in the Better Homes Contest.

Vincent Baker, winner of the P.-T. A. award for having the highest average of the underclassmen, was also winner of the freshman prize in the Better Homes Contest.

Tim Welch scored an oratorical victory in winning the Boys' Declamation Contest.

We wish to express our appreciation to Miss Aduddell, to Miss Hammock, and to the Art Department, and to the faculty as a whole, for their splendid help and timely advice, which has made our task a pleasant one.

To the OAK Staff—we, the editors, extend warmest thanks for the fine coöperation and excellent help you have shown us in the publication of the 1933 OAK.

Si ex his studiis delectatio sola peteretur, tamen, ut opinor, hanc animi remissionem humanissimam ac liberalissimam judicaretis. Nam ceterae neque temporum sunt neque aetatum ominum neque locorum; at haec studia adolescentiam alunt, senectutem oblectant, secundas res ornant, adversis perfugium ac solacium praebent, delectant domi, non impediunt foris, pern octant nobiscum, peregrinantur, rusticantur.—Cicero.

BOYS AND GIRLS GLEE CLUB

ORCHESTRA

Poppy Sale

For the first time in eight years, Oak Cliff High did not win first place in the Poppy Sale held Armistice Day by the American Legion for the benefit of the disabled veterans of the World War.

Although over two hundred girls worked diligently and put forth much energy, only second place was achieved.

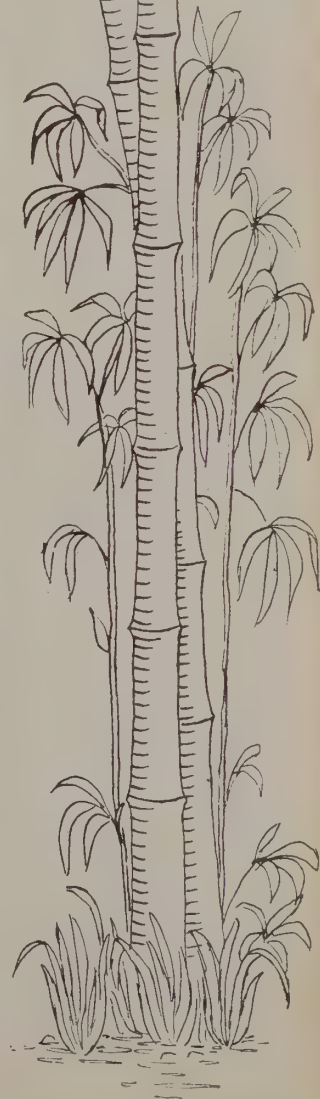

To the Dallas High School turning in the most money, a prize of fifty dollars was given; the individual who sold the most poppies received a diamond ring. With these rewards in mind, the girls put up a mighty battle, but the odds were against them. Determining to regain first prize next year, they congratulated the winning school with sincere warmth, and went away friendly rivals.

Much gratitude is extended to Miss Mae Morrison for the encouragement and coöperation she gave to the Oak Cliff girls in their fight for laurels.

OAK

PHYSICAL TRAINING CLASSES

Shiny boots and uniforms, swords and spears and all;

Heroes bold, conceited, cold, strutting down the hall.

You'd think they owned the very world, their chins are held so high—

Their hats won't fit a single bit, and still they wonder why!

*Music fills the halls! Hooray! It's Oak Cliff's
High School Band,*

The very best, it beats the rest, its rhythm's simply grand!

They make a pair beyond compare, and proud of them are we—

The gayest band in any land, the best R. O. T. C.

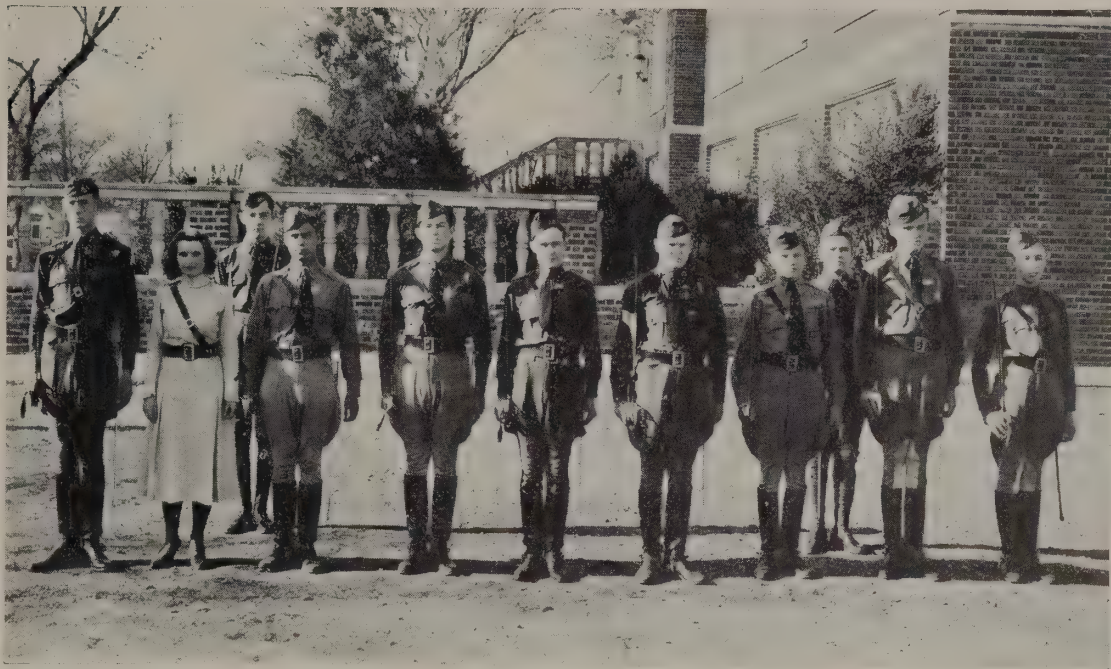

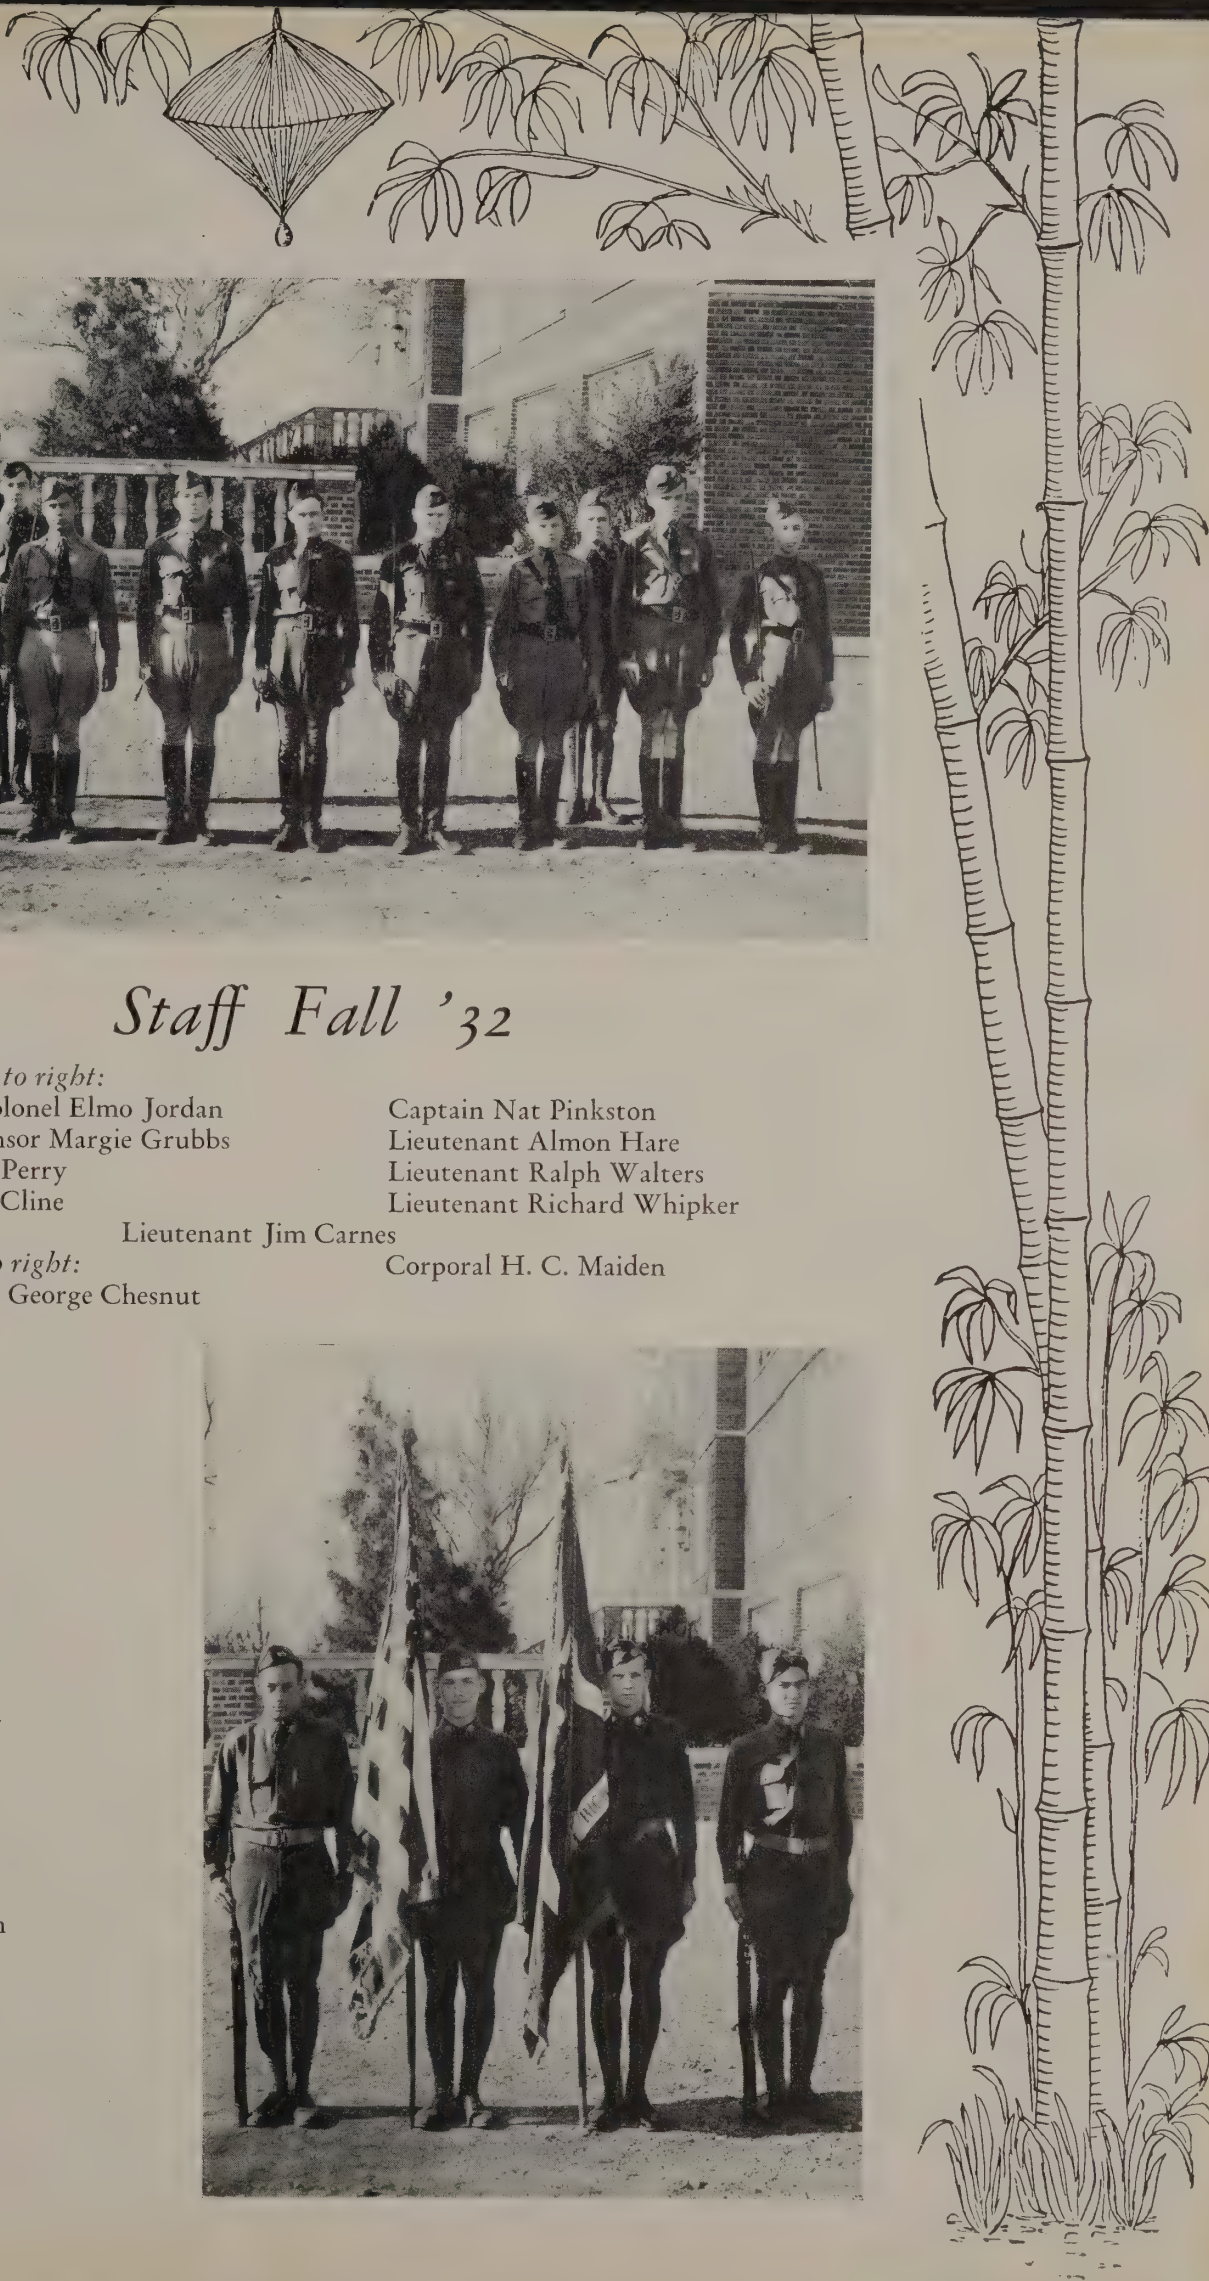

MILITARY

FAREWELL TO CHU TA WHO GOES TO CH'IN

*O friend, if thou to Wu-ling yet must go,
This sword of priceless worth to thee I show,
And as a parting present give to thee,
To mark our friendship's loyal constancy.*

MENG HAO-JAN.

The Oak Cliff rifle team made a fine showing this year by winning the City Rifle Match. They ranked first in the Dallas high schools in the Eighth Corps Area Match and second in the Shoulder-to-Shoulder Match. The team added many points to the Oak Cliff total for the Efficiency Cup.

ATHLETICS

Not games of chance are these we play, but games where men must fight;

Where luck is never victor, only speed, and skill, and might.

*These games need boys with brain and brawn,
with nerve enough to stick.*

They have a coach who's tried and true, to teach each play and trick.

In football, track and other sports, whenever honor's due—

You'll find the victors are the boys in suits of white and blue.

*How can they fail to raise each time their colors
to the sky,*

When, cheering, backing them to win, stands loyal Oak Cliff High?

ATHLETICS

SHADOWS OF FLOWERS

*The shadows up the terrace crept in thick array,
In vain the lad was told to sweep them all away.
And when the setting sun their forms withdrew,
Then lo! the silver moonlight brought them forth anew.*

SU SHIH.

OAK

Football Squad

Although not copping the championship, the Oak Cliff roaring Leopards came dangerously close to the coveted title, losing only by a tied game with Technical High School. The team started the season with a bang by bowling over the strong Sherman eleven by the overwhelming score of 19-6 and then defeating Forest High 20-0. Later the team slowed up, due to a long, hard grind, to a hard schedule and to many injuries. The team, however, copped undisputed second place in the district race and should again win the big trophy given annually to the school that comes out ahead in points in all the athletics of the schools.

WINTON (POP) NOAH, Coach

"Pop," as he is fondly called by his athletes, is rated as one of the best coaches in the state. "Pop" knows all the rudiments of football, especially the backfield and he, unlike some coaches, knows how to use that natural gift. He appears to be a hard boiled coach but when one of his boys gets hurt he becomes a tender, sympathetic helper. Mr. Noah not only teaches the boys how to play football but how to play the game of life. He is a clean sportsman and gentleman. May it be the good fortune of Oak Cliff Leopards to be under his guidance for years to come.

W. P. DURRETT, Assistant Coach

Upon the well experienced shoulders of Mr. Durrett, the jolly linesman coach, fell the job of moulding a first class line out of inexperienced material. This kind of work suited him exactly and before the end of the season Oak Cliff had one of the biggest and most powerful lines in the District. Mr. Durrett has the ability of getting the boys to fight to the last second of the game. The boys love and respect him because they know that he is one of the greatest fellows and coaches in the game.

OAK

JOHN SPRAGUE, Captain and Center

Captain Sprague was easily the power house of the Leopards line, smearing opponents' plays time after time. He was unanimously chosen on the official all district team and had honorable mention for the all-state football team. Opponents learned to fear the heartless powerful center with the fighting spirit. This is John's last year for the Blue and White but where ever he goes to college, he undoubtedly will make a name for himself and Oak Cliff High.

LLOYD (WILDCAT) RUSSELL, Halfback

Lloyd was unanimously chosen on the all-district team by the sport writers and coaches and also received honorable mention on the all-state team. He was a triple threat, speedy, sidestepping, slippery, back that would never give up until he had crossed the goal line. He was not only Wildcat to his friends but to his opponents as well. He should go great in college.

CLARENCE IVIE, End (Co-Captain Elect)

"Poison" Ivie to his opponents, but just Clarence to his friends, was this genial end of the Leopard eleven. The fact that he was handicapped by a head injury undoubtedly kept him off the official all-city team. He was a pass-snatcher De Luxe as well as a good blocker and tackler. "Poison" has one more year. Watch him step!

CARLOS (SPEEDY) JONES, Tackle (Co-captain elect)

"Speedy," the future captain of the Blue and White, was a tackle that could cover his position in an excellent manner. He was a good blocker and tackler. Many opponents have found out that his smile is but a mask. "Speedy" should make a good captain for the team as he has all the necessary qualities.

BILL IRWIN, Fullback

Little Bill with his size against him was a fighting demon in every game. He was used only as a blocker, but he could tote the pigskin. He was also a good pass catcher, and an excellent ramming line plunger. Although small he was a vicious tackler to which fact many of his opponents will testify.

WALTER IRWIN, Guard

"Boots," although handicapped by a broken arm last season came back with a bang to show the boys how to play guard. He was especially good on the defense, being able to charge quickly, as well as being an excellent interference runner. This is "Boots'" last year, but he will not soon be forgotten.

OAK

O. C. MANN, Tackle

Although inexperienced, O. C. immediately became one of the best tackles on the team. He possessed the size and the fighting heart and readily learned the rudiments of the game. He was a good tackler and blocker and was always ready to go into the game and battle for the team.

HAL LINN, Quarterback

Though exceedingly light in weight for his position Hal made up the deficiency in brains and speed. He was a smart quarterback and was excellent at calling plays. He was a good passer, kicker, and open field runner. Much is expected of him in college.

COY LEWIS, End

Coy, although handicapped by lack of weight and inexperience, was a fighter from the feet up. Coy was a shifty pass snatcher, and he intercepted many passes. He has one more year, which should make him a very valuable player.

MIKE STEINDORF, End

Mike was a fine end who possessed all the good qualities necessary for that position. His speed enabled him to get down under punts and his skill in receiving passes and blocking punts netted the Leopard team many touchdowns. If it had not been for a broken shoulder, Mike would undoubtedly have made the all-city team.

BILL IRWIN, Center

Big Bill, as he was called, did not disgrace his name because he played a whale of a game. Always on the job, always ready to do his part, and always ready to laugh was Bill. He was chosen to play with the squad of Dallas all-city players and he quickly showed his wares.

W. A. LOWE, Tackle

Forney, the Hercules of the Leopard line, really showed the team that he could football. He was exceedingly fast for a big man, blocking several punts during the season. He always showed the same fight and drive and his presence in the field was always felt. He stopped the opposing tacklers with very much force.

GROVER JENNINGS, Guard

Grover, although not a flashy player, was a dependable player who fought all the time and who always got his man. He was always at his post, as steady as a stone wall. He was a good tackler and blocker and an excellent interference runner. This is Grover's last year, but his fighting spirit will be easily remembered.

FRED CRABTREE, Quarterback

Fred came to Oak Cliff from Sunset High School to show the Sunset team how to play football. He was an alert quarterback who always seemed to know the right play to call. He was a powerful line plunger, a good passer, and a fine defensive man.

OAK

WALTER CROWELL, Fullback

"Tubby" was a powerful fullback who could always secure the yardage necessary for either a first down or a touchdown. He was exceptionally good as a defensive man who paved the way for the other Leopard backs. Walter was at his best as a powerful tackler. This is Walter's last year, but he will always be remembered by Oak Cliff High.

WILEY ROODE, Guard

Wiley, the good natured boy of the team, was always ready for a laugh, or for a football game. He was a rangy, speedy tackle that seemed to appear from nowhere to bring his man down. He was a good blocker and was extraordinarily good on the defense. Oak Cliff will surely miss such a good player.

CHARLES SPRAGUE, Guard

Charles, although inexperienced in competitive games, quickly showed that he was a member of the Sprague family by stopping everything that came in his direction. He seemed to get a pleasure in playing opposite his brother in practice. Charles has two more years and he should be a sensation next year.

WOODROW (DOC) HENSLEE, Halfback

"Doc" was the boy with the magic toe. He had a deadly accuracy in his drop-kicking. His thirty-two yard drop-kick against Sunset High, which defeated them by the score of 10-7 will never be forgotten. Besides this gift, he was an excellent punter and passer and he was one of the best blockers in the city-series race.

Happy Thanksgiving

W. P. DURRETT

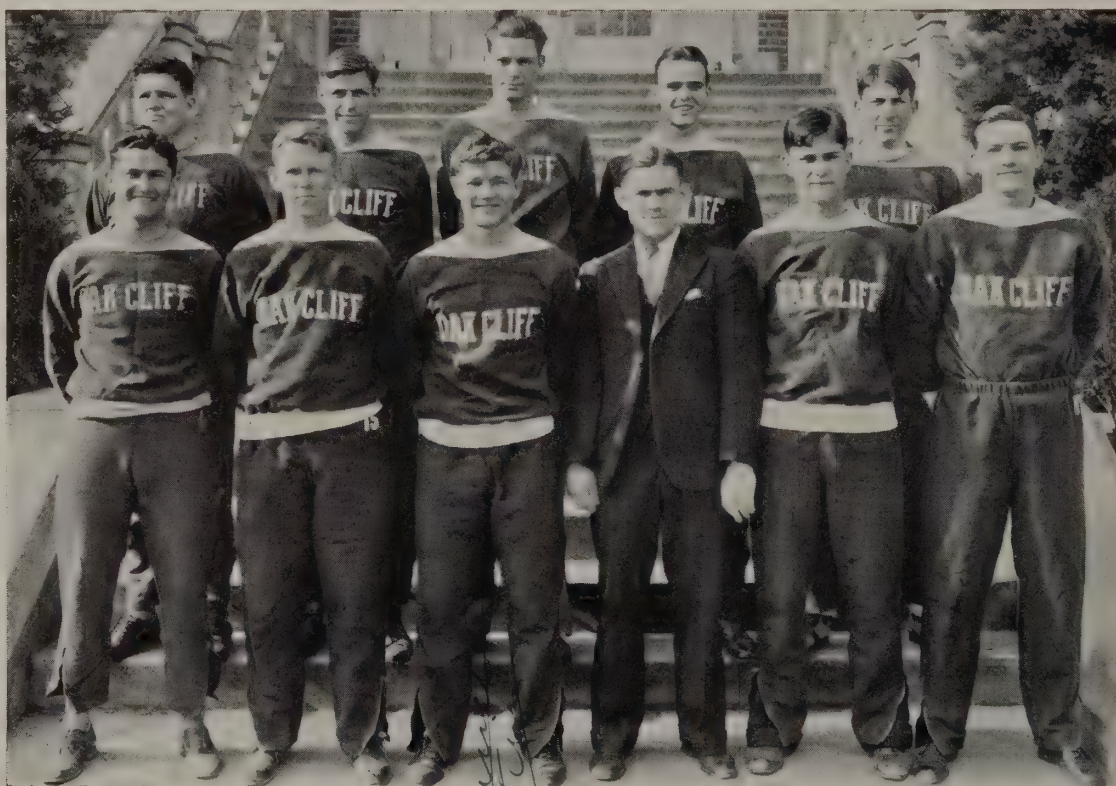

Basketball could scarcely have been under better supervision than under that of Mr. Durrett, whose personality, whose love for the game and whose unusual coaching ability has claimed the attention of sport lovers. While working with the Oak Cliff team, he has brought about some extraordinary development with the material on which he had to work.

LLOYD RUSSELL, Captain-Forward

Lloyd was the high scorer of the Leopard team, and finished high in the city series scoring race. He was mentioned on several all-city teams.

Basketball

Handicapped by lack of experience and material, the Leopard basketball team did not finish high in the city series race, but the team was always there fighting, and always made a habit of throwing a scare into the best teams. The lettermen were Hal Linn, Johnnie Sprague, Lloyd Russell, Doc Henslee, Richard Berry, Clarence Ivie, Walter Crowell and Tim Welch.

Baseball Squad

Proving that interest in baseball is not on the wane in Oak Cliff, approximately fifty boys turned out for the initial practice work-out. The nucleus of the team consists of the six principal players: Lloyd Russell, ace pitcher; Clarence Ivie, third base; Walter Crowell, catcher and pitcher; Hal Linn, shortstop; and Turner Perry and I. B. Benson, outfielders.

Track Team

Nineteen thirty-three was another big year for Oak Cliff Track Team. After winning several triangular meets the boys came through with a one-half point victory over Woodrow Wilson to win the City Track and Field Championship. Lloyd Russell and Johnnie Sprague were the outstanding performers of the team; Lloyd winning four first places to be high point man in the city meet, and Johnnie winning two first places and a second. After capturing the City Championship, the team captured the District Championship, amassing 33 points to North Dallas', the runner-up, 17 points. Again Russell and Sprague were the outstanding stars, amassing 18 and 15 points to be high point man and runner-up, respectively.

To the Cheer Leaders

Shout for valor shown,
Hoist the banner high,
Raise a song of victory
To the sapphire sky.

Guide us on to glory,
With spirit staunch and true
Lead us in a song of praise
To the white and blue.

THE LO-YANG ROAD

*The Lo-Yang highway runs as straight as hair,
And when the days in spring are bright and fair,
The Wu-ling princes thither go to race,
Their trappings' jingling music mark their pace.*

LINES WRITTEN IN HWAI-NAN TEMPLE

*I wander north and south and rest me here and there,
The stream is white with flowers, the landscape now is bare.
I come not here to mourn the work of autumn breeze,
The hills on either bank may mourn if they so please.*

MODERN CAMPING

Willie Clark: "Hello, where have you been?"

Jack Rice: "Just got back from a camping trip."

Willie Clark: "Roughing it, eh?"

Jack Rice: "I'll say so! Why, one day our portable dynamo went off and we had no hot water, electric lights, ice, heat or radio for almost two hours!"

RESOURCEFULNESS

We cannot but admire the resource of Pete Ficklen who wrote down, "On their heads," in answer to a question from Miss Harris as to where the kings of England were crowned, and a similarly naïve reply was given by him in response to the question, "Explain what happens when there is an eclipse of the sun," when he answered, truthfully enough, "A great many people go out to see it."

WHEN IT MOVES

W. L. Lindsey: "Your car rattles dreadfully. Does it always do this?"

J. P. Neal: "Oh, no—only when it is in motion."

AND A—SALTED

Miss Langford (reading item from Manchuria): "What does it mean here by 'seasoned troops,' J. H.?"

J. H. Killough (immediately): "Mustered by the officers and peppered by the enemy."

SOME PITCHER!

Marjorie Crouch (seeing her first ball game): "Isn't our pitcher, Walter Crowell, perfectly grand! He hits the club nearly every time he throws!"

HELPING OUT

Miss Haseltine (to Norman Rogers trying to buy a ticket to "Chonita"): "The best seat I can give you is one in the fourth row."

Norman: "No, I must have one in the first row."

Miss Haseltine: "All right; go get a fiddle and I'll put you in the orchestra."

HARD PART

Cleon Poole: "Gwendolyn Harrison has a very difficult role in the show the Dramatic Society is giving."

Bernadine Edmonson: "Difficult? Why, she hasn't a word to say."

Cleon Poole: "Well, what could be more

BRITAIN'S CAPITAL

"Tell me," said Miss Cooper, "where is the capital of England?"

"Please," replied Margaret McQuary, "I heard dad say most of it was in America and France."

* * *

ONE OR THE OTHER

Miss Ruth Bell: "Why is your handwriting so bad, Buddy?"

Buddy Brown: "Well, if it was better you wouldn't like my spelling."

A PERFECT EXAMPLE

Miss Ruffin: "Give me an example of the fitness of a name to the thing to which it is applied."

Cecil McCulley: "An orange, ma'am. An orange is orange in color, it has the shape of an orange, the taste of an orange, and it is really and truly an orange, as its name would lead you to expect."

OR A HAMMER

Lovella: "These are the first biscuits I ever baked. Take your pick."

Mrs. Walraven: "My dear! Are they as hard as that?"

THAT REBUKE

Little Mildred (after watching her brother eat several big pieces of cake): "Mamma, isn't it funny how much larger Forney really is than he seems to be from the outside?"

YOUNG WEBSTER

Miss Anna Bell: "What is etiquette, son?"

Marshall Ware: "It's when you have to say, 'No, thank you,' when you really want to say, 'Gimme some'."

* * *

SOMETIMES IMITATION

Mrs. Clement: "Do you like antique furniture?"

Billy Halliburton: "Yes, though it's not always what it is cracked up to be."

* * *

NO SUCH PLACE

Teacher: "Will someone give us an example of modern fiction?"

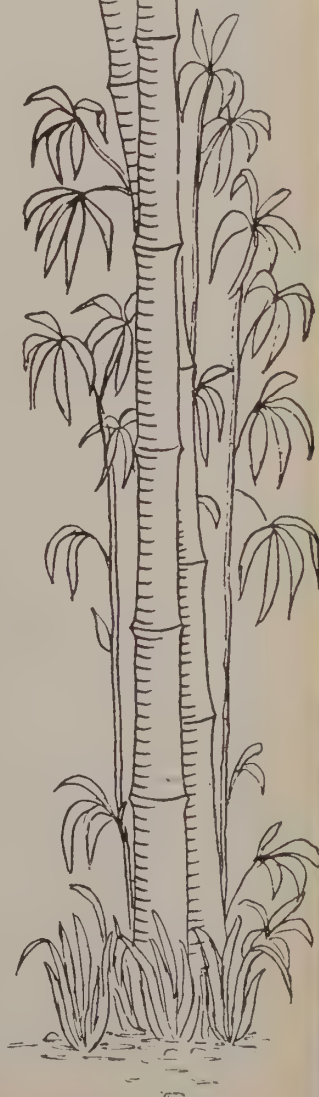

Elsie Mae Morrow: "The term 'safety zone'."

TRIPLE CONTROL

Jim Carnes: "Robert, how many controls are on your radio set?"

Robert Henderson: "Three—papa, mamma and Anna."

Miss Clyette: "Use the word 'boycott' in a sentence."

Charles Redding: "It rained that night and the boycott an awful cold."

* * *

But now that times have changed somewhat,
Along a different plan,
A dear, with powder on her nose,
Goes out to catch a man.

* * *

Miss Harris: "In what battle did General Wolfe, when hearing of victory, cry, 'I die happy?'"

Billy Beachum: "I think it was in his last battle."

Leighton Atteberry: "Do you think Mr. Cunyus put enough fire into his lecture?"

Cloda Tatum: "Rather, the trouble was he didn't put enough of his lecture in the fire."

* * *

John Sprague: "My, how fast your heart beats. It sounds like a drum."

Frances Hahn: "Yes, that's a call to arms."

Pop Noah: "Where do you bathe?"

F. W. Addison: "In the spring."

Pop: "I didn't ask you when; I asked where."

* * *

Edwin Roberts: "What is mistletoe—a vine or tree?"

Ed Shaw: "Neither; it's an excuse."

Seborn Kiker: "Do you like Shakesperean roles?"

Beth Gafford: "I don't know; I never ate them."

SENSE AND NONSENSE

Dean (Houston): "You've got to have a pull to get ahead."

Brother Smith: "You've got to have a head to get a pull."

Juanita Gibson: "Why is it that good looking men are always broke?"

Chauncey Brown: "What makes you think I'm broke?"

* * *

Wayland Philley: "I thought surely I heard the voice of the people calling me."

Friend: "You must have heard yourself thinking out loud."

Farmer Greer: "I guess I can make more money sticking to my pen."

Mary F. Tidwell: "Oh, a writer, eh?"

Farmer Greer: "No, I raise pigs."

Mrs. Clements: "Taylor, can you give me an example of harmony?"

Taylor Ogden: "How about a freckled-faced girl wearing a polka dot dress leading a giraffe?"

* * *

William Keith: "I'm a self-made man, I am."

Deane Bell: "Yeah, but you quit too soon."

Miss Bell: "What is heredity?"

James Sturdivant: "Something a father believes in until his sons begins acting like a fool."

* * *

Margie Grubbs: "Ralph, there's a motorcycle chasing us. Is it a traffic officer?"

Ralph Walters: "No, worse. It's the guy who collects the installments on this car."

* * *

Helen Woodcock: "What tense is 'I am beautiful'?"

Frances Batson: "Past!"

* * *

Lorraine Smith: "How do you know that Mrs. Ham is old?"

Fannie Norman: "I heard her say that she had taught Chaucer."

THAT KIND OF CAR

Grant Lake: "Do you do repairing here?"

Garage Owner: "Yeah, but we don't do manufacturing."

* * *

FOLLOWING HIS BENT

"What profession is your boy going to select, Mr. Hamra?"

"I'm going to educate him to be a lawyer," replied the father. "He's naturally argumentative an' bent on gettin' mixed up with other people's troubles, an' he might jest as well get paid for his time."

Mr. Cunyus: "I heard a new story the other day. I wonder if I've told it to you?"

Miss Tilley: "Is it funny?"

Mr. Cunyus: "Yes."

Miss Tilley: "Then you haven't."

TRUTHFUL

Mr. Adamson: "Is your friend, Charles Worley, in the habit of talking to himself when he is alone?"

Glenn Tinnin: "To tell the truth, Mr. Adamson, I never was with him when he was alone."

ON SCARECROWS

The farmer from the next farm was boasting about the effectiveness of his new scarecrow.

"Since I put it up," he said, "no bird has ventured withi nhalf a mile of the field. You can't beat that."

Mr. Campbell, however, was not to be outdone.

"I can beat it!" he said. "Last week I put up a scarecrow in my corn field which frightened theb irds so much that one of them brought back two ears it had taken."
